

MEETING MINUTES 02-17-05

AGC student chapter meeting was opened at 6:32 by President Pat Weller; followed by introductions of executive officers: Isaac Larson, Nate Lotvedt, Heather Thompson, and Sarah Grosz. Attendance sheets were passed around. Those who have not paid their dues yet are encouraged to dues are $10 for the spring semester and you also get a free t-shirt.

Competition sign up sheets also were passed around so that teams for next year can be drawn up for this coming fall. Current members have priority for team slots.

Tom Schoeberl is organizing a sweatshirt order. Jeremy won the sweatshirt design contest as well at $100 so his design will be featured on both a NDSU green and a gray sweatshirt. Costs for the sweatshirts will be approximately $40.

Again if anyone is planning on going to Las Vegas for spring break our chapter will pay their registration fees for the AGC expo which is $50.

The bison court field trip was reported as having gone well, pictures from the trip and other activities have been posted online on our website.

The spring field trip to the cities is scheduled for April 7 and 8th and there will be a heavy highway, commercial, and residential site tour. Thursday and Friday will feature tours and after lunch Friday they plan on heading back to Fargo.

We are still waiting to see about a Four Bears bridge tour and there is a possibility of a tour of Border States in May.

Members are encouraged to sign up to help with the Career Fair in Ingrid's office.

Finally next months meeting will be our officer election meeting at which point we will be transitioning to new officers.

Meeting closed at 7:15pm.

NAHB meeting and Mortenson presentation following our meeting.

NEXT MEETING: MARCH 24, 2005
